PGA TOUR season notes

- The 2025 Bank of Utah Championship is the fourth event of the FedExCup Fall, a group of seven tournaments played after the TOUR Championship that finalizes eligibility for the 2026 PGA TOUR Season
- Winners of events during the FedExCup Fall receive the similar benefits of winners of Full-Field Events during the Regular Season, including 500 FedExCup points, Official World Golf Ranking points, a two-year PGA TOUR exemption (exempt thru 2026) and invitations to The Sentry, THE PLAYERS Championship and PGA Championship
- The Aon Next 10 is an eligibility pathway that awards access into Signature Events (outside of The Sentry), recognizing the top 10 players, not otherwise exempt, from the FedExCup standings; Nos. 51-60 in the final FedExCup Fall standings at the conclusion of The RSM Classic will serve as the Aon Next 10 for the AT&T Pebble Beach Pro-Am and The Genesis Invitational
- There are 14 players in the field who rank between Nos. 91-110 in the standings and are not exempt on TOUR beyond 2025: Rico Hoey (No. 91), Matt Wallace (No. 93), Beau Hossler (No. 95), Patrick Fishburn (No. 98), David Lipsky (No. 99), Isaiah Salinda (No. 101), Joel Dahmen (No. 103), Max McGreevy (No. 104), Victor Perez (No. 105), Sam Ryder (No. 106), Andrew Putnam (No. 107), Lanto Griffin (No. 108), Lee Hodges (No. 109), Taylor Moore (No. 110)

Message Document: 2025 Bank of Utah Championship

Organizational Momentum

- Good Good Championship to debut on PGA TOUR in 2026: The PGA TOUR and Good Good Golf announced on Monday, Oct. 20 a new PGA TOUR tournament, the Good Good Championship, set to debut during the 2026 FedExCup Fall at Omni Barton Creek Resort & Spa's Fazio Canyons Course in Austin, Texas.
    - The inaugural tournament, taking place the week of Nov. 9-15, 2026, will be broadcast on Golf Channel and three properties produced from PGA TOUR Studios: PGA TOUR LIVE on ESPN+, Sirius XM and the World Feed.
    - The Good Good Championship will feature a field size of 120 players with 500 FedExCup points awarded to the winner.
    - Omni Barton Creek's award-winning Fazio Canyons Course recently underwent an extensive renovation, with architect Tom Fazio playing a significant role in restoring the course he originally designed in 1999. The 7,433-yard, par-72 layout winds through limestone cliffs and the meandering Short Spring Branch, framed by stately red oaks and sycamores. Scenic vistas and strategically designed holes create a championship-caliber challenge for golfers while highlighting the natural beauty of the Texas Hill Country.
- Bermuda Tourism Authority extends sponsorship of Bermuda event: The PGA TOUR and Bermuda Tourism Authority announced last week a multi-year extension to title sponsor Bermuda's PGA TOUR event. The agreement was unveiled ahead of the seventh annual Butterfield Bermuda Championship, which returns to Port Royal Golf Course Nov. 10-16, 2025.
    - In 2024, Rafael Campos earned his first career TOUR victory in storybook fashion, winning by three strokes over Andrew Novak to retain full membership with just two starts left in the season. The then-36-year-old entered the week needing at least a runner-up finish in either of his final two starts of the year to keep his card, and ended up winning just days after his wife, Stephanie, gave birth to their first child.
    - Campos was emotional on the 18th green in the aftermath, calling it "the best week of his life." He became the first Puerto Rican to win on the PGA TOUR in 45 years, after Chi Chi Rodriguez won his eighth and final TOUR event in 1979. The victory reverberated back home, where the people of Puerto Rico hosted a massive celebration in his honor later that year.
- PGA TOUR announces additions to senior leadership team: PGA TOUR CEO Brian Rolapp announced on Friday, Oct. 17, several updates to the TOUR's senior leadership team, aimed to further strengthen the organization and deliver more value to fans, players and partners.
    - Headlining the changes are two additions to the TOUR: Dhruv Prasad as Chief Commercial Officer and Paul Hicks as Executive Vice President, Strategic Communications and Public Policy.

- Further, Andy Weitz is expanding his role as Chief Marketing Officer, and Neera Shetty, Chief Legal Officer and EVP, Social Responsibility, will take on interim oversight of additional administrative functions.
- These changes further accelerate the PGA TOUR's momentum, and the TOUR's priorities remain clear: to build the best product and never stop innovating. Along the way, progress will be measured in two ways—fan engagement and economic return.

Tournament Focus

Refer to the region as Southern Utah, not Greater Zion (use Ivins when referring to the city, not St. George)*

- PGA TOUR in Utah: The inaugural event in 2024 marked the PGA TOUR's return to Utah for the first time since 1963. Prior to the TOUR's last visit at the 1963 Utah Open Invitational won by Tommy Jacobs at Salt Lake City Country Club, there were six additional TOUR events held in Utah beginning with the 1930 Utah Open won by World Golf Hall of Fame member Harry "Lighthouse" Cooper. The tournament prides itself on providing opportunities for aspiring amateurs and professionals with ties to Utah, with all four unrestricted sponsor exemptions native Utahns.

- Bank of Utah: In its second year on the PGA TOUR schedule, the Bank of Utah Championship introduces a new title sponsor in Bank of Utah in 2025. An independent, locally owned community bank since 1952, Bank of Utah has deep local roots and a commitment to serving its community. The PGA TOUR stage provides the platform to live out these commitments—celebrating Utah's beauty, spirit, and innovation while strengthening and growing local economies and supporting families.

- Black Desert Resort: Set amidst the vermillion sandstone cliffs and striking black lava beds of Greater Zion, Black Desert Resort is a premier destination for luxury hospitality, golf, and Southern Utah adventure conveniently located 100 miles north of Las Vegas and 300 miles south of Salt Lake City. Spanning over 600 acres of scenic landscape, Black Desert Resort offers easy access to 200+ acres of preserved land and six miles of hiking trails. Operating within a fragile desert ecosystem, Black Desert is committed to sustainable water use, turf innovation, and eco-conscious resort practices.

Competitions Storylines

- FedExCup Fall: The FedExCup Fall offers players the opportunity to secure or improve their status for the following season. The 2026 season will feature several eligibility changes, most notably that the top 100 in the standings through the FedExCup Fall (The RSM Classic) will secure exempt status for the following season, with Nos. 101-150 having conditional status. With fewer cards available, the drama will be heightened thanks to stronger fields and more competitive friction as players vie for playing status ahead of 2026.

- Aon Next 10: The Aon Next 10 is an eligibility pathway that awards access into Signature Events (outside of The Sentry), recognizing the top 10 players, not otherwise exempt, from the FedExCup standings; Nos. 51-60 in the final FedExCup Fall standings at the conclusion of The RSM Classic will serve as the Aon Next 10 for next season's AT&T Pebble Beach Pro-Am and The Genesis Invitational.

    - One player moved inside the top 60 after the Baycurrent Classic: Garrick Higgo (from No. 62 to No. 57); Mackenzie Hughes (No. 60 to No. 64) moved out

- Utahns: Eight players in this week's field have ties to Utah, headlined by Patrick Fishburn, who enters the week No. 98 in the FedExCup Fall standings and looks to secure his spot in the top 100 for the 2026 season.

- Golf Course: The par-72 Black Desert Resort Golf Course was designed by Phil Smith and the late Tom Weiskopf, which was the final design of the World Golf Hall of Fame member. In just its third year (opened in May 2023), Black Desert also hosted the LPGA Tour in May of 2025. The course sits within ancient lava fields framed by Snow Canyon State Park and the red cliffs of Ivins, creating one of the most visually stunning stops on TOUR. This year, 30,000 sq ft of grass viewing area was added to player's left of 18 green to give all ticket holders more space to view the final hole.

Player Priorities

- Matt McCarty: 2024 winner and Black Desert Resort ambassador returns to defend his maiden PGA TOUR title. Won the 2024 Bank of Utah Championship in his third career PGA TOUR start, and he became the second player to win on the PGA TOUR in the same season after earning the Korn Ferry Tour's Three-Victory Promotion (Jason Gore/2005 84 Lumber Classic). Enters the tournament ranked 84th in the FedExCup Fall standings and most recently finished T14 at the Baycurrent Classic where he carded a career-low 60 in the final round. Two top-10s this season coming at the RBC Canadian Open (T4) and Wyndham Championship (T8).

- Patrick Fishburn: A native of Ogden, Utah and BYU alum, the second-year PGA TOUR member sits 98th in the FedExCup Fall standings. Owns four top-10 finishes this season, with his best finish being T5 at the Valero Texas Open. In 2024, Fishburn entered the FedExCup Fall No. 104 in the standings before recording two top-10s in the Procore Championship (3rd) and The RSM Classic (T8) to retain exempt status. Won the 2016 Utah Amateur Championship at Alpine Country Club in Highland as well as the 2017 Utah Open at Riverside Country Club in Provo.

- Preston Summerhays: Born in Farmington, Utah, Summerhays is competing as a sponsor exemption. Finished No. 7 in the 2025 PGA TOUR University Ranking, earning Korn Ferry Tour membership for the remainder of the 2025 season (finished No. 109 in the standings after three top-25 finishes in 11 starts). Two-time winner of the Utah Amateur (2018, 2019). His 2018 title came when he was just 15 years old, making him the youngest winner in the event's history. Also won the 2019 U.S. Junior Amateur Championship at Inverness Club in Toledo, Ohio, earning an exemption into the 2020 U.S. Open for his PGA TOUR debut (MC).

- Zac Blair: Of the nine players with Utah ties in last year's Bank of Utah Championship, Blair was the lone player to make the cut, eventually finishing 66th. BYU alum and resident of St. George, Utah owns two career runner-up finishes in 221 career starts on TOUR, including the 2024 ISCO Championship, where he fell in a five-man playoff to eventual winner Harry Hall. Enters the week 172nd in the FedExCup Fall standings after just one top-25 finish in 17 starts this season (T18/Corales Puntacana Championship).

- Maverick McNealy: Only player in the field who advanced to the 2025 TOUR Championship, finishing the season 23rd in the 2025 FedExCup standings. Making his Bank of Utah Championship debut, the Las Vegas resident is one of two players in the field ranked inside the top 20 in the Official World Golf Ranking (Alex Noren/17th, McNealy/19th). Recorded seven top-10 finishes, including four top-three finishes, in 25 starts this season, highlighted by a runner-up at The Genesis Invitational.

PGA TOUR COMPETITIONS
OVERVIEW OF CHANGES FOR 2026

EXEMPT STATUS Exempt status for 2026 changes from top 125 to top 100 on the prior season's FedExCup Points List.

Players finishing between Nos. 101-150 will have conditional status and be broken into three different categories on the Priority Ranking: 101-110, 111-125 and 126-150. These three categories will have varying levels of access to Full-Field Events.

FIELD SIZES Beginning in 2026, the maximum number of players in a Full-Field Event will be 144 players*, down from 156. Due to circumstances such as limited daylight, some events will have field sizes of 120 or 132.

*The American Express, played on three courses, and the Genesis Scottish Open, co-sanctioned with the DP World Tour, maintain a field size of 156.

THE PLAYERS Championship field size will be 120 beginning in 2026.

These reductions in field sizes will have a positive impact on Speed of Play through a better flow of play on the golf course.

SPONSOR EXEMPTIONS Sponsor exemptions restricted to players in the DP World Tour/Korn Ferry Tour/Q-School category as well as those restricted to PGA TOUR members have been removed and reallocated to the next eligible members on the Priority Ranking.
NOTE: There are no changes to unrestricted sponsor exemptions, which are typically a standard of four.

OPEN QUALIFYING Open Qualifying spots have been eliminated for Full-Field Events with fields of 120 and reduced to two for fields of 132. Fields of 144, which make up the majority of Full-Field Events, maintain four Open Qualifying spots. There are no changes to Open Qualifying for Opposite Events and the FedExCup Fall, which maintain four spots.

In total, there are six events affected by the changes to Open Qualifying (reduction of 17 spots over the course of the season):

Tournament	2026 field size	2026 OQ spots
Sony Open in Hawaii	120	None
WM Phoenix Open	120	None
Cognizant Classic	120	None
Valspar Championship	132	2
Texas Children's Houston Open	132	2
Valero Texas Open	132	2

DP WORLD TOUR/KORN FERRY TOUR/Q-SCHOOL As a result of these changes, players who receive their cards via the Korn Ferry Tour/DP World Tour/Q-School have exempt access to Full-Field Events.

Tour/Pathway	2026 PGA TOUR cards available
DP World Tour	10 (no change)
Korn Ferry Tour	20 (down from 30)
PGA TOUR Q-School	5 (rather than top five and ties)

2026 PRIORITY RANKING The restructured Priority Ranking delivers fair and equitable playing opportunities for all who earn exempt status on the PGA TOUR.

Categories in BOLD are considered to have a PGA TOUR card in 2026 (thru Life Members), with conditional status for the remainder of the categories (beginning with Nos. 101-110).
