Message Document: 2025 Travelers Championship

Organizational Momentum

- PGA TOUR CEO: On June 17, the PGA TOUR announced that Brian Rolapp has been named Chief Executive Officer (CEO). Rolapp joins the TOUR after spending more than two decades with the National Football League (NFL), where he helped reshape how fans experience live sports and most recently served as the league's Chief Media and Business Officer. Having formed the search committee to find his successor, Commissioner Jay Monahan will transition his day-to-day responsibilities to the new CEO and increasingly focus on his role as a member of the PGA TOUR Policy Board and PGA TOUR Enterprises Board. Monahan plans to stay with the TOUR through the end of his current contract (December 2026)

Tournament Focus

- The 2025 Travelers Championship marks the 19th tournament with Travelers as the title sponsor, making Travelers the longest-serving title in the event's history. Travelers is under contract as a Signature Event through 2030.
- The Travelers Championship is the only annual PGA TOUR event held in the Northeast, with the event being a consistent favorite among players and families. Never use "Hartford" when referencing the tournament, it is Cromwell, Connecticut.
- The tournament donated 100% of its net proceeds to charity, leaning into the narrative that charity and community are at the heart of everything the tournament does. Since its first donation of $300,000 in 2006, the event has raised the bar to more than $3.2 million in 2024 ($31 million in total since Travelers became title sponsor in 2007).
- Travelers Championship received the Most Fan-First Event Award by the PGA TOUR in 2024.
- SENSITIVE TOPICS: The tournament does not want to revisit the lightning strike or 18th green protest from 2024. We have a holding statement prepared should media or stakeholders inquire about adjustments to security measures in response to the protest in 2024.

Competitions Storylines

- Final of eight Signature Events this season, with seven different players having claimed a Signature Event this season: Hideki Matsuyama (The Sentry), Rory McIlroy (AT&T Pebble Beach Pro-Am), Ludvig Åberg (The Genesis Invitational), Russell Henley (Arnold Palmer Invitational presented by Mastercard), Justin Thomas (RBC Heritage), Sepp Straka (Truist Championship), Scottie Scheffler (the Memorial Tournament presented by Workday)
- Field note: 63 of 72 players in the field competed in last week's U.S. Open, with eight finishing inside the top 10: J.J. Spaun (1st), Robert MacIntyre (2nd), Viktor Hovland (3rd),

Cameron Young (T4), Scottie Scheffler (T7), Sam Burns (T7), Ben Griffin (T10), Russell Henley (T10)

- Four sponsor exemptions restricted to PGA TOUR members: Luke Clanton, Rickie Fowler, Tom Kim, Gary Woodland
- In the last 30 playings of the Travelers Championship, only three International players have won: Russell Knox (2016/Scotland), Marc Leishman (2012/Australia) and Freddie Jacobson (2011/Sweden); International players have won 15 of 27 events on TOUR this season
- A new tournament tee on No. 3 will make the hole play slightly longer in 2025.

Player Priorities

- Scottie Scheffler: World No. 1 and FedExCup leader will defend his 2024 title – one of seven PGA TOUR titles last season – including four in Signature Events; claimed the third successful title defense of his career at the Memorial Tournament presented by Workday
- Luke Clanton: PGA TOUR rookie received one of four sponsor exemptions restricted to PGA TOUR members; became the second player to earn membership through PGA TOUR University Accelerated (Gordon Sargent) and made his professional debut at the RBC Canadian Open (MC); recorded four top-10s in 13 PGA TOUR starts as an amateur, highlighted by runner-up finishes at the 2024 John Deere Classic and 2024 RSM Classic
- J.J. Spaun: U.S. Open champion became the first player on TOUR since 2003 to post a front-nine score in the 40s and go on to win (40-32); set to make his seventh career start at the Travelers Championship (best: T30/2019) where he has a special connection with Travelers EVP and CAO Andy Bessette who helped Spaun address his diabetes diagnosis.
- Keegan Bradley: New England native captured the 2023 Travelers Championship (his first with his family in attendance) and set the 72-hole tournament scoring record (257); 2025 U.S. Ryder Cup Captain owns four top-10s in 14 starts this season and sits No. 17 in the U.S. Team Rankings
- Rory McIlroy: World No. 2 and FedExCup No. 2 is the first Career Grand Slam winner in 41 years to play in the Travelers Championship; Gary Player, who claimed the Career Grand Slam in 1965, competed five times at the event after that, most recently in 1984, the first year the tournament was held at TPC River Highlands
- Jordan Spieth: 2017 champion and AT&T ambassador is scheduled for a pre-tournament press conference on Wednesday, the same day as AT&T's title sponsor renewal announcement

- Cameron Young: Became the second player to shoot a sub-60 score at the Travelers Championship with a third-round 59 en route to a T9 finish in 2024 (other: Jim Furyk/58/R4/2016); coming off back-to-back T4 finishes at the RBC Canadian Open and U.S. Open and is the player with the most runner-ups on TOUR without a win (7)

Message Document: 2025 Travelers Championship

Organizational Momentum

- PGA TOUR CEO: On June 17, the PGA TOUR announced that Brian Rolapp has been named Chief Executive Officer (CEO). Rolapp joins the TOUR after spending more than two decades with the National Football League (NFL), where he helped reshape how fans experience live sports and most recently served as the league's Chief Media and Business Officer. Having formed the search committee to find his successor, Commissioner Jay Monahan will transition his day-to-day responsibilities to the new CEO and increasingly focus on his role as a member of the PGA TOUR Policy Board and PGA TOUR Enterprises Board. Monahan plans to stay with the TOUR through the end of his current contract (December 2026)

Tournament Focus

- The 2025 Travelers Championship marks the 19th tournament with Travelers as the title sponsor, making Travelers the longest-serving title in the event's history. Travelers is under contract as a Signature Event through 2030.
- The Travelers Championship is the only annual PGA TOUR event held in the Northeast, with the event being a consistent favorite among players and families. Never use "Hartford" when referencing the tournament, it is Cromwell, Connecticut.
- The tournament donated 100% of its net proceeds to charity, leaning into the narrative that charity and community are at the heart of everything the tournament does. Since its first donation of $300,000 in 2006, the event has raised the bar to more than $3.2 million in 2024 ($31 million in total since Travelers became title sponsor in 2007).
- Travelers Championship received the Most Fan-First Event Award by the PGA TOUR in 2024.
- SENSITIVE TOPICS: The tournament does not want to revisit the lightning strike or 18th green protest from 2024. We have a holding statement prepared should media or stakeholders inquire about adjustments to security measures in response to the protest in 2024.

Competitions Storylines

- Final of eight Signature Events this season, with seven different players having claimed a Signature Event this season: Hideki Matsuyama (The Sentry), Rory McIlroy (AT&T Pebble Beach Pro-Am), Ludvig Åberg (The Genesis Invitational), Russell Henley (Arnold Palmer Invitational presented by Mastercard), Justin Thomas (RBC Heritage), Sepp Straka (Truist Championship), Scottie Scheffler (the Memorial Tournament presented by Workday)
- Field note: 63 of 72 players in the field competed in last week's U.S. Open, with eight finishing inside the top 10: J.J. Spaun (1st), Robert MacIntyre (2nd), Viktor Hovland (3rd),

Cameron Young (T4), Scottie Scheffler (T7), Sam Burns (T7), Ben Griffin (T10), Russell Henley (T10)

- Four sponsor exemptions restricted to PGA TOUR members: Luke Clanton, Rickie Fowler, Tom Kim, Gary Woodland
- In the last 30 playings of the Travelers Championship, only three International players have won: Russell Knox (2016/Scotland), Marc Leishman (2012/Australia) and Freddie Jacobson (2011/Sweden); International players have won 15 of 27 events on TOUR this season
- A new tournament tee on No. 3 will make the hole play slightly longer in 2025.

Player Priorities

- Scottie Scheffler: World No. 1 and FedExCup leader will defend his 2024 title – one of seven PGA TOUR titles last season – including four in Signature Events; claimed the third successful title defense of his career at the Memorial Tournament presented by Workday
- Luke Clanton: PGA TOUR rookie received one of four sponsor exemptions restricted to PGA TOUR members; became the second player to earn membership through PGA TOUR University Accelerated (Gordon Sargent) and made his professional debut at the RBC Canadian Open (MC); recorded four top-10s in 13 PGA TOUR starts as an amateur, highlighted by runner-up finishes at the 2024 John Deere Classic and 2024 RSM Classic
- J.J. Spaun: U.S. Open champion became the first player on TOUR since 2003 to post a front-nine score in the 40s and go on to win (40-32); set to make his seventh career start at the Travelers Championship (best: T30/2019) where he has a special connection with Travelers EVP and CAO Andy Bessette who helped Spaun address his diabetes diagnosis.
- Keegan Bradley: New England native captured the 2023 Travelers Championship (his first with his family in attendance) and set the 72-hole tournament scoring record (257); 2025 U.S. Ryder Cup Captain owns four top-10s in 14 starts this season and sits No. 17 in the U.S. Team Rankings
- Rory McIlroy: World No. 2 and FedExCup No. 2 is the first Career Grand Slam winner in 41 years to play in the Travelers Championship; Gary Player, who claimed the Career Grand Slam in 1965, competed five times at the event after that, most recently in 1984, the first year the tournament was held at TPC River Highlands
- Jordan Spieth: 2017 champion and AT&T ambassador is scheduled for a pre-tournament press conference on Wednesday, the same day as AT&T's title sponsor renewal announcement

- Cameron Young: Became the second player to shoot a sub-60 score at the Travelers Championship with a third-round 59 en route to a T9 finish in 2024 (other: Jim Furyk/58/R4/2016); coming off back-to-back T4 finishes at the RBC Canadian Open and U.S. Open and is the player with the most runner-ups on TOUR without a win (7)

Travelers Championship Historical Notes

Bill Whedon, a West Hartford amateur, made history in 1955 when he received an invitation into the Insurance City Open. In the first round, Whedon made a hole-in-one on the fifth hole. Four holes later, Whedon made his second ace of the day, becoming the first player in TOUR history to make two holes-in-one same round. Whedon shot rounds of 75-73-80-76 and tied for 71st.

Whedon died September 1, 2024 in West Hartford, at age 97. His Connecticut car vanity license plate for most of his life was “THIO.” (Two Holes In One)

Since Whedon’s feat, two other TOUR players have made two aces in the same round. Japan’s Yusaku Miyazata made aces on the seventh and 12th holes at the 2006 Reno-Tahoe Open at Montreux Golf and Country Club. In 2015, Brian Harman made an ace at the third hole at Plainfield Country Club (New Jersey) during The Barclays and then made another on the 14th hole.

Billy Casper is the all-time winningest player in Hartford. Casper, a World Golf Hall of Fame member, won all four of his titles in a 10-year period. His first victory came in 1963, by a stroke over George Bayer, Casper won again in 1965 (in a playoff over Johnny Pott), in 1968 (by three strokes over Bruce Crampton) and 1973 (by a stroke over Bruce Devlin).

Bob Toski is the oldest living PGA TOUR winner. Toski will turn 99 on September 18. He won five PGA TOUR titles, his first career victory coming at the second Insurance City Open, in 1953.

Charlie Sifford, the first black player to join the TOUR following the PGA of America ending the Caucasian-only clause, won his first TOUR title in Hartford, at the 1967 tournament. The victory, however, did not result in an invitation into the Masters as Augusta National Golf Club did not invite all tournament champions to the tournament at that time.

By 1972, the winner in Hartford would receive a Masters invite. That season, Lee Trevino beat Lee Elder in sudden-death playoff in Hartford that concluded on a Monday. Trevino made a 16-foot putt on the first extra hole, preventing Elder from winning his first TOUR title. Elder eventually won in Pensacola during the 1974 season, earning a Masters invite for 1975 and becoming the first black player to play in the Masters.

In only his second year as a PGA TOUR pro, the little-known Tim Norris flirted with the PGA TOUR's all-time 72-hole scoring mark before settling on a Hartford tournament-record, 25-under 259 total and a six-stroke victory over a pair of future World Golf Hall of Famers—Raymond Floyd and Hubert Green. Norris missed the first 14 events of the season with a sprained right hand, and upon his return he only made three cuts in 15 starts, amassing $3,550 in earnings. He got into the tournament as a Monday qualifier (REMINDER: THIS WAS BEFORE THE ALL-EXEMPT TOUR SO MANY MONDAY SPOTS WERE AVAILABLE). He just missed tying Sam Snead's victory-margin record (seven strokes) by bogeying the 72nd hole. This was Norris' only TOUR victory, and he only had nine other top-10s in his other 252 career starts.

After retiring from TOUR golf, Norris became the head men's golf coach at UTEP (1990-97). Norris left El Paso for Manhattan, Kansas, where he was Kansas State head men's coach from 1997 until 2014. Norris coached current PGA TOUR player Robert Streb and former TOUR player Aaron Watkins. At UTEP, Norris coached future PGA TOUR winner and current PGA TOUR Champions player Paul Stankowski and future Korn Ferry Tour winner Ryan Hietala.

In the last 30 playings of the Travelers Championship, only three non-Americans have won: Scotland's Russell Knox (2016), Australia's Marc Leishman (2012) and Sweden's Freddie Jacobson (2011).

The only player to successfully defend his title was Phil Mickelson. His two wins came in 2001 and 2002.

Tournament Finishes/Winners

Sam Snead (1955)

The tournament had a scheduled Monday finish, and Snead coasted to a record-setting (still stands) seven-shot triumph. Snead held a four-shot, 54-hole advantage, shot a final-round, 2-under 69 to win by seven over Fred Hawkins and Mike Souchak.

Arnold Palmer (1956)

Palmer found himself in a sudden-death playoff with his friend Ted Kroll, the inaugural Hartford winner, in 1952. For the entire tournament, Palmer used a putter that Kroll had given him. Palmer and Kroll both birdied the first extra hole, and then Palmer won with another birdie Kroll couldn't match.

Arnold Palmer (1960)

Palmer began the final round three shots behind Bill Collins but caught leader Jack Fleck on the 70th hole. The trio of Collins, Fleck and Palmer ended regulation tied. After Collins dropped out on the first extra hole, Palmer eliminated Fleck by draining an 18-foot birdie putt after Fleck's birdie chip came up short. It was Palmer's second Hartford title (1956).

Howard Twitty (1980)

Twitty and Jim Simons finished regulation tied, and it took six sudden-death holes to determine a winner. They played 15-16-17-18 (all pars but splitting bogeys on 17). They then played 15 (par) and 18 (Twitty's birdie).

Paul Azinger (1987)

It was a fortuitous bounce on Azinger's 72nd-hole drive Sunday. He missed right off the tee, but instead of the ball going into the junk, it hit something and bounded back into the fairway. His second shot landed on the fringe, and he two-putted from there for his first win.

Paul Azinger (1989)

Azinger left his 18th-hole approach shot Sunday in the rough next to the green. About 45 feet from the pin, he used a wedge, landed his shot on the green and watched it roll into the cup for birdie and a dramatic one-shot win over Wayne Levi. It was Azinger's second win in Hartford in three years (1987).

Olin Browne (1998)

On the first playoff hole, Browne was battling Stewart Cink, the defending champion, and Larry Mize. Mize blew a four-shot lead with four holes remaining, leaving the trio in a playoff. On the first extra hole, Mize essentially bowed out with a poor drive and approach. From 40 feet, Browne holed his sand-wedge, greenside chip for birdie. That forced Cink to make his 15-foot birdie putt, which he couldn't do, giving Browne the dramatic victory. The Hartford Courant headline the next morning read "Browne from Downtown"

Brent Geiberger (1999)

Brent added the Geiberger name to the father-son-PGA TOUR-winners list with his victory in Hartford. Geiberger's third-round 66 included a 1-2-3-4-5 and 6 on his scorecard, his ace coming at the par-3 11th hole. Oddly enough, Geiberger was so dominant through 70 holes that he double bogeyed No. 17 Sunday and bogeyed the 18th and still won by three shots.

Peter Jacobsen (2003)

Jacobsen, at age 49, made a routine par on the 18th hole Sunday to win in Hartford for the second time, 19 years after his first title. At the time, Jacobsen was the fifth-oldest winner in TOUR history. He's now No. 11 on that list.

Jim Furyk (2016)

Furyk shot the PGA TOUR's all-time lowest 18-hole score during the final round in 2016. Furyk teed off more than five hours before the final pairing went off that afternoon. He made 10 birdies and an eagle (No. 3) through 16 holes and only needed to make pars on Nos. 17 and 18 to shoot 58. He missed birdie putts of 44 feet and 26 feet, respectively, to finish his round. Either falling would have given him a 57.

Jordan Spieth (2017)

Jordan Spieth held on at the end of regulation to force a playoff with Daniel Berger. Then, facing a bunker shot, Spieth holed his shot from the greenside sand, with a wild celebration following. That unlikely hole-out forced Berger to make a 50-foot birdie putt to continue the playoff. Berger missed. The victory was Spieth's 10th, making him only the second player (Tiger Woods) with double-digit PGA TOUR wins before his 24th birthday.

Harris English (2021)

The eight-hole playoff between Harris English and Kramer Hickok tied the TOUR mark for the second-longest playoff in TOUR history (with five other tournaments). Only the 11-hole playoff at the 1949 Motor City Open was longer. English ended the overtime on the eighth extra hole—No. 18—when he rolled in a 16-foot birdie putt almost two hours after the end of regulation. The duo played the 18th six times and the par-4 17th twice during the playoff.

Cameron Young (2024)

Beginning the third round 11 shots behind 36-hole leader Tom Kim, Young shot an 11-under 59, making seven birdies and two eagles but missing a chance at 58 when he parred No. 18. In order to shoot the sub-60 score, Young had to make a nine-foot par putt on 18. Young went on to tie for ninth.

Clanton is the only player in the field making his first start in a Signature Event this season, bringing the total number of unique players to compete in Signature Events this season to 112 (2024: 115).
