SES-360 SCORE

SES SCORE is an innovative media platform that enables rights holders to seamlessly book and manage content across multiple delivery methods within a single system. SCORE eliminates the need for separate platforms and streamlines every aspect of the distribution process for media rights holders.

- Multiple Delivery Methods:

Content delivery is available via satellite, IP, or fiber, enabling selection of the most suitable method for any infrastructure and audience requirements.

- A La Carte Management:

All aspects of distribution—including bookings, feeds, and delivery methods—can be managed efficiently from a single, intuitive dashboard.

- Visibility and Transparency:

Provides broadcasters with visibility into available content, costs, and the status of all feeds and bookings. This transparency streamlines planning, acquisition, and overall distribution management.

- Automation and Efficiency:

Advanced automation simplifies the management of bookings, reducing manual effort and minimizing the risk of errors throughout the distribution process.
